

25 Years of Living and Laughing with My Disability

In the tapestry of life, where vibrant threads of experiences intertwine, my journey has been marked by an unexpected turn. A quarter century ago, a cruel twist of fate left me grappling with a disability that would forever alter the course of my existence.

Yet, amidst the adversity, a flame of resilience ignited within me. Refusing to succumb to despair, I embarked on a path paved with both challenges and triumphs. Through sheer determination and unwavering optimism, I discovered a newfound purpose in life.
