This year marks the 50th anniversary of the first television special, which aired on NBC in 1951. To celebrate, we're taking a look back at some of the most memorable TV specials of all time.

The Ed Sullivan Show

The Ed Sullivan Show was a variety show that aired on CBS from 1948 to 1971. It was one of the most popular shows in television history, and it featured a wide range of guests, including Elvis Presley, The Beatles, and The Rolling Stones.

The Carol Burnett Show

The Carol Burnett Show was a comedy-variety show that aired on CBS from 1967 to 1978. The show starred Carol Burnett, Harvey Korman, Tim Conway, and Vicki Lawrence. It was one of the most successful comedy shows in television history, and it won 25 Emmy Awards.

Saturday Night Live

Saturday Night Live is a sketch comedy show that has aired on NBC since 1975. It is one of the longest-running and most popular shows in television history. The show has featured a wide range of cast members, including John Belushi, Dan Aykroyd, Eddie Murphy, and Tina Fey.

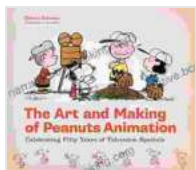

The Muppet Show

The Muppet Show was a variety show that aired on CBS from 1976 to 1981. The show starred Jim Henson's Muppets, including Kermit the Frog, Miss Piggy, and Fozzie Bear. The show was a huge success, and it won three Emmy Awards.

These are just a few of the many memorable television specials that have aired over the past 50 years. These specials have entertained, informed, and inspired us. They have helped to shape our culture and they will continue to be a part of our lives for many years to come.
