Norris's martial arts prowess led him to a successful career as a movie star. He made his film debut in 1972's "Way of the Dragon," in which he fought alongside Bruce Lee. Norris went on to star in numerous action films, including "The Way of the Dragon" (1972), "Enter the Dragon" (1973), "Forced Vengeance" (1982), and "Missing in Action" (1984).

Chuck Norris: The Myth

Chuck Norris is not just a man, he is a legend. Over the years, countless myths and legends have sprung up around him, many of which are so outrageous and humorous that they have become known as "Chuck Norris Facts."

According to Chuck Norris Facts, Norris can roundhouse kick a tornado, count to infinity – twice, and make a sandwich cry for mercy. He is also said to have invented the internet, the wheel, and the concept of time.

While these Chuck Norris Facts are obviously not true, they speak to the larger-than-life image that Norris has cultivated over the years. He is a symbol of strength, masculinity, and humor, and his legend will undoubtedly continue to grow in the years to come.
