The tale unfolds at the court of King Arthur, renowned for its splendor and extravagance. As the Christmas season approaches, the knights gather for a feast of unparalleled merriment. Suddenly, an enigmatic figure emerges from the icy wilderness—the Green Knight, his skin as emerald as the forest, his attire shimmering with an otherworldly glow. He challenges the knights to a perilous game: one of them must strike him with his own axe, only to receive the same blow in return a year and a day later.
