Regional Hot Dogs

The United States is a big country, and each region has its own unique style of hot dog.

New York City

The New York City hot dog is a classic for a reason. It's a simple hot dog, but it's cooked to perfection and topped with just the right amount of mustard and sauerkraut.

Chicago

The Chicago hot dog is a bit more elaborate than the New York City hot dog, but it's just as delicious. It's topped with a variety of toppings, including yellow mustard, neon green sweet pickle relish, chopped white onions, a dill pickle spear, tomato slices or wedges, pickled sport peppers and a dash of celery salt.

Los Angeles

The Los Angeles hot dog is a bit of a fusion dish. It's made with a Mexican-style hot dog, but it's topped with American-style toppings, such as ketchup, mustard, and relish.

Other Regions

Of course, these are just a few of the many great hot dogs that can be found across the USA. Other regions have their own unique styles of hot dogs, such as the New England hot dog, the Texas hot dog, and the Carolina hot dog.
